

Mission Statement

Provide a full range of counseling services that support and promote personal growth, positive family relationships, and emotional and spiritual well-being.

Provide these services from the perspective of Christian, biblically based principles in order to equip the client to live a Christ-centered life in the home, vocation, and community.

Provide counseling services on a sliding scale, allowing persons of all income levels to have quality professional services.

“Send forth
Your light and
Your truth!
Let them guide
me.” Psalm 43
